

Supervisor Superstar

April 2011

Mr. L. E. Smith has been a dedicated member of the Warren County Conservation District since January 1st of 1963, putting in nearly 48 years of service as our treasurer.

He is the father of three wonderful children, one of whom is the former Commissioner of Agriculture, Billy Ray Smith.

He is a devoted member of First Baptist Church and treasurer for the Warren Association of Baptists.

He runs Smith Southside Feed in Woodburn, Kentucky and at 88 years of age is not showing any signs of slowing down.
