

November 2011

Superstar Supervisor

James B. McElroy – Union County

James B. McElroy, of Morganfield Kentucky, was elected to the Union County Conservation District Board in 1983. He serves as Treasurer for the board. Also, he has been a Farm Credit Director since 1975.

James and his son Doug operate a grain operation in Western Kentucky raising corn, wheat and soybeans. He is a former Rural Appraiser and Real Estate Broker. He is a past president of the Bluegrass Chapter of the American Society of Farm Managers and Rural Appraisers. McElroy has also served as chairman of the Kentucky Corn Check-Off Board, and is a member of the Kentucky Farm Bureau, Corn Growers, Soybean Growers and Small Grain Associations.

James B. McElroy is a 1970 graduate of the University of Kentucky with a B. S. Degree in Agriculture. He and his wife, Niesje, have three children.