

FEBRUARY SUPERSTAR SUPERVISOR

David Rowlett is a farmer and Production Supervisor of Kentucky Utilities Company's Ghent Generating Station. He has been employed by KU for 38 years. His wife, Sarah, (better known as Sally) and David operate a 65 registered and commercial Angus cow herd on their farm just outside of the city limits of Carrollton. They have two children, Carrie, who resides in Raleigh, N.C. and a son, Theo, who attends the University of Louisville. David is also, famous for his Christmas jam cakes. David serves on many committees. Mr. Rowlett has been a member of the Carroll County Conservation District for 29 years and is the current Chairman. He is the current Kentucky Association of Conservation District Area 5 Director. He is the Secretary/Treasurer for the KACD for 3 years. He is Chairman of the Education Committee. David other involvements include 1987-1989 graduate of the Phillip Morris Leadership Program; University of Kentucky College of Agriculture Alumni; Vietnam Veteran of the United States Air Force; Carroll County Agriculture Development Council; Member of the Carroll County Beef Cattle Association; past president and treasurer; Member of the Kentucky and National Beef Cattle Associations; Community Advisory Panel of Dow Corning and ARKEMA chemical plants; Charter member of the Beef Connections; Farm Bureau member and past board member; Governors task force for Bio-Mass Fuel Agriculture; Forestry and Waste Management Committee and member of Kentucky Ag Water Quality Authority. David is a great asset to the Carroll County Conservation District and we are proud to make him our "SUPER STAR"